SANITARY COMPANY'S BOOKS INVESTIGATED

J. Brooks Johnson Wanted Explanation of Entry Crediting Money to Campbell and Butler.

J. Brooks Johnson promises that the in restigation of the books of the St. Louis Banitary Company, of which he is a stockholder, will bring to light some startling facts. An order was granted recently to Mr. Johnson by Judge Zachritz, permitting him to examine the books of the company. He employed William K. Spinney, an expert

One thing on the books which Mr. Johnson wishes explained is an entry crediting sey to James Campbell and Colonel Ed Butler, Colonel Butler said yesterday; "The money credited to Mr. Campbell and I was funds loaned by us to the company and then returned. The company has always been in a bad financial condition, and Mr. Campbell and I have tided it over its bad times by loaning it large sums of money. When I was out of town Mr. Campbell retary Walter B. Stevens, Vice President would advance it, and when I was here I Seth W. Cobb, C. W. Knapp and others would advance it. When the company was able it would return what we had loaned. "Shortly after the order to investigate the books of the company was granted the stock advanced, and we were able to declare a dividend of 6 per cent. This was paid out of the advance in the stock." Mr. Johnson said: "The St. Louis San-ftary Company received thousands of dollars a year for handling the city's garbage. and yet the directors have claimed in the past that they could not pay a dividend. The reason that they could not pay a dividend is what I hope the investigation of the books will show."

TAZEWELL COUNTY CARRIED BY DAWES

W. R. Curran 'Had Charge of the Anti-State Machine Forces and Managed the Campaign

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Pekin, Ill., May 1.-The Republican County Convention of Taxewell County to-day was as peaceful as a church service. The adherents of Governor Yates have been tearing around at a dreadful rate for a week past, filling the newspapers with their threats against the other faction. Even the Governor was made to believe that his friends could make a good enough case for a bolt. He expected it up to noon to-day.

bucket, and the next hour it rained.

It was a body blow for Colonel Conzelman. The truth about to-day's convention is that the friends of Charles G. Dawes were in the saddle. Senator Albertsen of Pekin is one of Mr. Dawes's warmest friends, and it was Albertsen who com-manded the anti-Yates forces. The tribe of Hopkins and Yates was swept out of the convention. There was not a shadow of an opportunity for a bolt of the majority. Colonel Conzelman of the Yates military staff and Mayor of Pekin was prepared to run a rival convention on slight provocation. The shrewdness of Judge W. R. Curran. chairman of the County Committee and a member of the "gang" in Pekin, prevented the bolt. He did this by his announcement when he called the convention to order as chairman of the County Committee.

Called for Contests. "It has been determined by the County Committee," said Curran, "that no recommenadtion be made for temporary organization of this convention. You will select your own temporary officers. We will first have a call of the roll, to determine where the contests are, and the County Committee has ordered that in townships where there is a contest neither delegation shall vote or participate in the temporary organization. The secretary will call the roll to develop contests."

Contests were discovered only in Pekin and Tremont. The entire Pekin delegation and tremout. The canter real decadatas of forty-seven was in a tangle, and the bailout for control hinged or the action that succeeded in having its delegation seated. Colonel Jonathan Merriam, pension agent at Chicago, who owns a farm in Tazewell, lives in Chicago and is alleged to vote in Leann County, and who was brought down. Logan County, and who was brought down for the purpose, was nominated for chair-man by the anti-Yates side. The Conzel-man or Yates army placed E. M. Wayne in nomination, and Merriam was elected—66 to 29. Postmaster Helple of Washington was floor manager for the anti-Yates forces The generalship on the other side was in-

The only resolution adopted instructs for Graff for Congress.

The feeling is so strong between the factions here that it was decided by the victorious faction to postpone the nomination of a countr ticket until Tuesday, July 15. They will have to use a block-and-tackle to get candidates even then. The delegation to the Senatorial Convention will be for Homer J. Tice for Representative, and Tice is very much anti-yates. He is probably a friend of Dawes. Tazewell has twice as many votes in the Senatorial Convention as any other county in the district. The State delegates are a unit against any protgramme of the Yates-Hopkins faction.

Party Is Disrupted.

Party Is Disrupted. Party is Disrupted.

The list of ten is headed by Albertsen. The Conzelman faction was assisted by U. A. Wilson, Farm Superintendent at the Fontiac Reformatory, who lives in Schuyler County; by W. R. Ambrose of Delavan, clerk in the Jollet Penitentiary; Editor Shade of the Pekin Post-Tribune; ex-Sheriff Stout, cattle inspector of the State Board of Health at Peoria, and John S. Cerney, clerk in the Board of Health office, Springfield.

The County Committee is anti-Yates, and it ordered that the delegates to the County Convention be selected in any manner the Republicans in each voting precinct should determine. This meant only mass caucusses in each precinct, and the anti-Yates faction selected delegates in Pekin in that way.
The Conzelman-Yates faction held voting primaries, by order of the city committeeman of Pekin, a Yates adherent.

The convention decided in favor of the first method as being legal. The party in Tazewell is split in the middle, and there is little probability of a junction this year.
The anti-Yates crowd secured the new County Committee by a large majority.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Kansas City, Mo., May 1 .- Attorney General Crow and his assistant, S. B. Jeffries, are in the city to-day, preparing to pros-ecute the State fight against the Beef Trust. General Crow left for St. Joseph this afternoon on the same mission. Little satisfaction was obtained here, according to Mr. Jeffries.

"I have found," said he, "that the butchers are in mortal dread of incurring the displeasure of the packers. There is not one willing to make a statement in open court or even to let me use his name. If they will come to the assistance of the State, as I told them, we can crush the trust, but the present indications are that they are gagged. So far, the trip has not been event

CUTTERS WANT AN EIGHT HOUR DAY

Clothiers Refuse to Grant the Demand and the Employes Quit Work.

The factories of ten Washington avenue wholesale clothing firms have been shut down for the last two days because of a strike by about 125 cutters, who demand an eight-hour day at the same wage they are receiving for a nine-hour day. Representatives of the firms say that trade is not Injured, as there is stock sufficient in hand to last an extended period.

These firms are: I. Harris & Cc., The Mayfield Woolen Mills Company, Rosenthal & Desberger, Gilmore & Ruhl, Marx & Hass, I. Hass & Son, Martin Blumenfeld & Co., the Loth Jeans Clothing Company and the Baer, Oliver & Singer Clothing Company. All are members of the St. Louis Clothiers' Association.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL St. Charles, Mo., May 1.-The case of Sophronia K. Keene vs. Effis Keene was appealed to the Missouri Supreme Court today from the St. Charles County Circuit Court. A motion for a new trial was first made, but, after Judge E. M. Hughes re fused to grant it, the case was appealed, the provision being made that bond for $1, 200 be filed in ten days after this term of

The Keene case has attracted a great deal of interest. Eli Keene, who died over a year ago, left a will, which gave his property to his children, the mother of whom. Phoebe Keene, was a slave owned by his father and later by him. He was married to his present widow, Mrs. Sophronia K. Keene, in West Virginia, who did not know of his family affairs in St. Charles County, and was led to believe he had no children. At his heath he left her a life interest in one farm, located at Missouri Point, St. Charles County, and willed the remainder of his property, valued at over $50,000, to his children. She resorted to the courts, and Judge E. M. Hughes, in an opinion submitted yesterday, decided the case in her favor, allowing her half the estate left by her husband.

NO RECORD KEPT OF COST OF PHILIPPINES.

War Department Has No Separate Account of Military Operations on Islands.

Washington, May 1.-Aguinaldo was the special subject of discussion in the Senate to-day. As soon as the Philippine Government bill was taken up, Mr. Carmack of Tennessee resumed his criticism of the Philippine Committee because of its refusal to call Aguinaldo and other Flipinos as witnesses. He maintained that, as reflec-tions by witnesses had been cast on the character of Aguinaldo, he ought to be permitted "in all decency" to defend himself.

Mr. Carmack's contention was sharply combated by Mr. Foraker of Ohio, Mr. McComas of Maryland, and Mr. Burton of Kansas.

Mr. Culberson of Texas, in support of a statement by Mr. Carmack, that the War Department suppressed information and falsified the Philippine situation, presented a letter from the Secretary of War, which he thought was proof of the Tennessee Senator's assertion. The Secretary states in the letter that it was not practicable to supply the information requested because no special account was kept of Philippine war expenses, and it would require the service of a large force of clerks to work out the information desired.
